Michael Davis, the colored cook at the Ormsby House, takes special pride in his ability to manufacture fine salads.

UNLUCKY FOURTEEN.

A Complete List of the Numerical Coincidences.
A great deal has been written about Goldenson's superstition concerning the number 14, and to have the matter placed correctly before the public, he prepared the following list for a Post reporter a few days ago:

"While I do not consider it an unlucky number," he wrote, "I do certainly think it is very strange that the number 14 should recur so often in my case. My first Sunday in jail was November 14, 1886. Add the letters of the Christian names, Alexander and Mamie, and you have 14. The same result is gained by adding the number of the letters in the surnames Kelly and Goldenson. The names of the attorneys who lost my case by deserting me, each contain 14 letters; Eugene N. Deuprey and William H. Jordan. I was 14 months in solitary confinement. Mamie Kelly's age is 14 years. My statement published in the Post contained 1,625 words, 1 plus 6 plus 2 plus 5 equal 14. Another statement was published August 14, 1888. My trial commenced February 14, 1887. There are 14 letters in the surnames Cook and Campbell, Jr., the names of the attorneys who defended me. Judge Murphy first passed sentence on me on April 14, 1887. I am finally sentenced to be hanged September 14, 1888. My name as I sign it contains 14 letters.

ALECK GOLDENSON.

Scene in District Court at Genoa.

Court.—"Mr. Clerk, call twelve jurors.

Clerk, shaking the box.—James C. Bull, H. D. Johns, James Hughes, T. N. Hansen, Thomas Fowler, Gee Lo—"

Attorney General Alexander, rising from his seat in great excitement.

"If your Honor please, I can't permit a Chinaman to sit on a jury in a case in which I am acting as counsel. I expect to be a candidate for Governor two years from now, and the prejudice against the Chinese is such on the coast that it would ruin my chances totally."

The Court smiled a fatherly smile on the ambitious attorney and remarked:

"The man who answered to that name, John, don't seem to be of the hated race you mention."

"Mr. Clerk, what did you say that last name was?"

The Clerk settled his Brazilian pebbles on his handsome nose, and gazing intently upon a slip of paper which he held in his hand, sang out at the top of his voice:

"G-e-a-r Lowe!"

The Attorney General dropped into his seat with a "dull thud" and business proceeded.—Genoa Courier.

Destroying the Trout.

A correspondent from Clear Creek, Mr. Vair, writes to the APPEAL that hundreds of trout are being caught in the stream now by people whose only object seems to be to wantonly destroy the fish. Most of them are heavy with spawn and they should not be slaughtered while in that condition. There seems to be a good many junkheaded fools who go fishing in this country who have no idea of the habits of fish.

The next Legislature should pass a law for the protection of fish which will be stringent and effective.

Ladies

In delicate health, and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken and more beneficial in its effect than any other remedy. It acts promptly yet gently on the Bowels, Kidneys, Liver and Stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, agent.

Swift Election.

At a meeting of the Swift Engine Co., No. 3, Sept. 13. The following officers were elected:

Geo. A. Tyrrell, President; Will U. Mackey, Foreman; Abe Cohn, 1st. Ass't; Fred Sergeant, 2nd. Ass't; Chas. W. Calvin, Secretary; Wm. Hy. Doane, Treasurer; A. B. Walters, Engineer and Janitor.

THE CANDIDATE'S MEETING.

Delegates Chosen to the County Convention.

Last evening the candidates on the County ticket met at the District Court room and selected the following delegates to the County Convention for Carson precinct:

Forest Small
J. F. Tranter
W. H. Cowan
Lib. Hasting
E. S. Daugherty
Abe Cohn
Albert Johnson
Geo. Gevovich
L. H. Bell
Geo. H. Meyers
C. D. Meder
C. Singleton
Chas. Brulin
E. Reynolds
W. M. Little.

A resolution was adopted requiring the names of all candidates to be printed on one ticket to be submitted to the people at the Crawford primaries. After assessing the candidates one dollar apiece for printing, the meeting adjourned.

Out of Whole Cloth.

In yesterday morning's Enterprise was a pretended interview with the editor of this journal. It read as follows:

"What was the matter with your Republican committees and managers here? I noticed the house was packed, but that was the result of the work of the newspapers. Why didn't they have the chairs on the stage all filled? Why didn't they have a force of police to keep that gang of young toughs in the gallery quiet? It's just like it is our way. These committeemen spend their time sneaking around assailing the newspapers, and think themselves perfect. They spend their nights drinking gin, and groan over the sacrifices they make for the good of the party. Nothing but the masterly argument of Bartine could have attracted the attention of the audience away from those chairs."

The above interview was manufactured absolutely of whole cloth, and its effect, if uncontradicted, would be to place the editor of the APPEAL at loggerheads with the Central Committees of Virginia City and Carson.

The editor of the APPEAL was not at the Bartine meeting at Virginia at all, being in this city at the time, and consequently could not have indulged in such boorish criticisms as have been placed in his mouth by the Enterprise.

The writer has been so frequently left in a false position by having bogus interviews placed to his credit, that his patience is about exhausted.

It is quite evident that the man who manufactured the interview did so with the idea of giving a back slap to the Republican Central Committee of Storey, and not daring to assume the responsibility himself, found it convenient to place it on someone else's shoulders. Had Mr. Campbell, the proprietor, not been in Hawthorne when the article was written, it would never have appeared. The Enterprise will please correct its statement.

That Bet.

The item that appeared in yesterday's APPEAL regarding a bet on the election, gave an impression that Major Dennis had made a bluff which he failed to fill. No one who knows Major Dennis will ever accuse him of pledging himself to do anything which he failed to do. The terms of the bet were evidently misunderstood, and resulted in a good deal of needless talk all round. There is still, however, $5000 at the Bank to bet on Harrison.

Judge Terry Asks to be Released.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 12.—Judge Terry has petitioned Justice Field to release him from the ordered punishment for contempt, stating that no contempt was intended by him. The matter will probably be disposed of on Monday next.

—The Corner Stone of the Public Building will be laid on the 29th the last day of the District Fair.

—Bartine's speech in Virginia City made him a good many votes.
